

You will be renting space in buildings recognized by the National Register of Historic Places – because of their age and significant history, we place conditions on rental contracts with the aim of preserving these buildings for use by future generations. SCHF complies with all state regulations regarding the sale and use of alcohol (see policy statement in contract).

1885 Auditorium & Stage and 1868 Chapel/Convent – All Auditorium and Chapel/Convent rentals require a deposit at the time the contract is signed. The deposit is in addition to the rental fee, but the full $500 deposit is refundable if the property is returned in the condition it originated. In the event of a cancellation, the deposit is not refunded. All rental fees are due in four increments between the date you book your event and one month prior to the rental date. Additional hours are available for $150 each.
