PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Speak Up!” Communication Class for Kids

VICKSBURG, MS (November 5, 2008): The Southern Cultural Heritage Foundation presents “Speak Up!” A Communication Class for Kids. This day camp will be held January 6th-8th from 8:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. (held during the VWSD intersession week). The camp is open for children in 4th-6th grade. The registration fee is $135 per child and includes supplies, materials and snacks. Students will need to furnish their lunch each day.

During this unique camp, children will learn to speak confidently and relate better to friends, family, and adults. Students will develop speaking and communication ability while having loads of fun! This course will enhance public speaking, confidence, self-esteem, leadership ability, and manners (beyond “please” and “thank you”!)

Children, both outgoing and shy, will develop at their own pace with plenty of positive encouragement. This course is led by professional motivational speakers, Sharonda Medina and Kim Stribling (www.saylegacy.com).

Space is limited to only 30 students and reservations are required. For more information or to register, please call the SCHF office at 601-631-2997 or email info@southernculture.org.
